Title: SHC Surgical Services Care Review Committee - 1/13/2027

Learning Objectives
After participating in this regularly scheduled series, participants should be able to:

1 Differentiate individual performance concerns from system, process, teamwork, and care-coordination factors contributing to adverse events.

2 Develop fair, actionable recommendations that promote accountability, organizational learning, and measurable improvements in surgical and perioperative patient outcomes.

3 Apply standardized peer review and Just Culture principles to evaluate surgical and perioperative cases objectively and consistently.

Accreditation
In support of improving patient care, Stanford Medicine is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Credit Designation
American Medical Association (AMA)
Stanford Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.50 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
