

Megan Duckworth

Planetary Health Report Card

Megan Duckworth is a third year medical student at the Alpert Medical School (AMS) of Brown University. She led the Planetary Health Report Card (PHRC) at AMS in 2019, is in her second year as PHRC Communications Lead, and helped launch the AMS Planetary Health Task Force. She is interested in the synergistic human health benefits inherent to doing the right thing for the planet and in the impacts of climate change on reproductive health.
