

Eileen Egan, DNP, FNP-C, BC-ADM, CDCES, FADCES

Director of Diabetes Education for the Faculty
Practices

NYU Winthrop University Hospital

Eileen serves as Director of Diabetes Education for the Faculty Practices at NYU Winthrop University Hospital. Her responsibilities include direct patient care, staff education, serving as a preceptor to NP students, as well as mentoring fellows and residents. Eileen works extensively with new and emerging diabetes technology as well as transitioning young adults from the pediatric to the adult diabetes team. She speaks nationally to health care professional of all disciplines regarding diabetes, she is actively involved in research as a PI and Sub-I, she serves as a reviewer for journals, textbooks and conference abstracts. Eileen was named the 2012 NY Metropolitan Diabetes Educator of the Year and the 2018 Nurse Practitioner of the Year for the Nurse Practitioner Association of Long Island. Eileen is a Fellow of the Association of Diabetes Care and Education Specialists.